SCRIPTURE READINGS

THIS WEEK'S SERMON THEME

"Profound!"

by Rev. Steve Schauder

WEEKEND READINGS

Old Testament: Isaiah 61:10—62:3

Epistle: Galatians 4:4-7

Holy Gospel: Luke 2:22-40

SERMON TEXT: LUKE 2:22-40

<sup>22</sup> When the time came for their purification according to the Law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord <sup>23</sup>(as it is written in the Law of the Lord, "Every male who first opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord") <sup>24</sup>and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the Law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons." <sup>25</sup>Now there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and this man was righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. <sup>26</sup>And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. <sup>27</sup>And he came in the Spirit into the temple, and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him according to the custom of the Law, <sup>28</sup>he took him up in his arms and blessed God and said, <sup>29</sup>"Lord, now you are letting your servant depart in peace, according to your word; <sup>30</sup>for my eyes have seen your salvation <sup>31</sup>that you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, <sup>32</sup>a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to your people Israel."

<sup>33</sup>And his father and his mother marveled at what was said about him. <sup>34</sup>And Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, "Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign that is opposed <sup>35</sup>(and a sword will pierce through your own soul also), so that thoughts from many hearts may be revealed." <sup>36</sup>And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived with her husband seven years from when she was a virgin, <sup>37</sup>and then as a widow until she was eighty-four. She did not depart from the temple, worshiping with fasting and prayer night and day. <sup>38</sup>And coming up at that very hour she began to give thanks to God and to speak of him to all who were waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem. <sup>39</sup>And when they had performed everything according to the Law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. <sup>40</sup>And the child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom. And the favor of God was upon him.

LUTHERANS FOR LIFE

"The slaughter of the innocents continues in our time ... done not out of anger, but because the arrival of these little ones is deemed inconvenient or too expensive or sometimes simply because they are not the 'right' sex. We, like Rachel, weep over our lost children. But mourning their loss does not mean that we do not fight to end this assault on the sanctity of life. The holy birth of our Savior Jesus Christ, which has transformed the world for the good in so many ways, gives us hope that abortion, too, can be ended." Steven Mosher, Population Research Institute – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

SCHOOL, CHURCH & COMMUNITY

YOUTH MINISTRY MINUTE

'If you build it...they will come.'

A well-known quote from the movie, 'Field of Dreams.' It worked for Kevin Costner. 'The Landing' is built. The space is ready for the youth of our church community and beyond. Will they come? That is the question isn't it?

That is the hope-that the youth of our congregation will come through the doors of 'The Landing' and find a community that they want to be a part of and that they want to invite others to be a part of.

I can't control whether or not they walk through the door, but I can tell you what will be waiting for them on the other side. 'The Landing' will be a safe place for young people to have fun, build authentic relationships with their peers and caring adult leaders. They will not be a number- they will be known. The youth will find a place where they can grow in their faith and ask the tough questions. They will be a part of a community that plays and prays together.

They are being prayed over as the foundation is being laid. Won't you pray with me? Youth are not the future of the church. They ARE the church-right now. They, along with us, are the church TODAY. If they are not the church today, chances are good that they won't be the church tomorrow either. We've got a job to do. Let's get busy. And join our Facebook Group under St. James Ministries!

Anchored in Him-
Elizabeth Drengler
Youth Ministry Coordinator
